Key Information

Christians believe that at his last supper with his disciples, Jesus took this cup and gave thanks.

The word Eucharist means thanks-giving. This is why communion is called Eucharist in some Christian traditions.

The Bible teaches that a Christian's life should be one of 'thanksgiving', not just of thankfulness but of active 'giving thanks' to God for all he is and does.

Communion reminds Christians of the blessing we have received in Christ and that is something for which we can give thanks.
