Dear Parents/Careers

Next week is National Book Week. Our focus for this week is Fantasy writing.

We are very excited to have Jack Trelawny, a children's author, visit our school on Wednesday 7th March. Jack has published a series of books as part of the Kernowland adventures. During his visit he will read extracts from his books and explain how he comes up with ideas for his characters. His presentation will hopefully inspire the children to use their imaginations and creativity in their writing.

This year we are asking the children to dress up as Pirates to not only celebrate World Book Day, but to also create a level of excitement and anticipation around the author's visit and so stimulate the children's interest. Pirates feature in the Kernowland adventures.

After the presentation, the children will have an opportunity to purchase signed copies of Jack's books. Please read the enclosed information .
