Dear Parents

To celebrate Book Week on 4th to 8th March, we have invited the author Jenny Ford to visit our school on Monday 4th March. Her children's books promote strong wellbeing and positive mental health through imagination and adventure. Jenny has been nominated for a global award by The Author's Academy for her adult book Prisoner Within in 2018 and has also written a book on prayer.

Jenny will speak to the children in KS1 and KS2 about her experiences as an author- how she writes, what she writes and why she writes. She will read from her books and explain how she came up with the ideas, theories and characters. Following this, the children will write a short story using their imaginations and a stimulus. They will also be making a variety of books.

Jenny's signed books will be on sale during the day. The books are £7.99 each and come with a free bookmark.
A dyslexia friendly version is also available at the same price.

She has also produced a positive affirmations poster for children, which helps build self-esteem, self-confidence and self-belief. The A4 size is £4 and the A3 size is £6.

On Book Day, Thursday 7th March, we would like the children to dress up as animals from stories which might include mythical creatures such as unicorns and mermaids which are a theme from Jenny's books. Please be creative. You don't need to spend a lot of money.

Looking forward to an enjoyable week.

Regards
D.Deane
