Parent Questionnaire –Feedback

Dear Parents,

Thank you to everyone who completed our Parent Survey both online and through the comments at Parents' Evening.
We had a total of 74 responses online which was fantastic. The more we hear from you, the more we can work together to achieve the highest standards in all areas for your child.
Please find attached the responses to the online questions and a summary of all the comments we received.

We are delighted to see that the majority of those who responded agreed or strongly agreed with all of the statements. As always, there are areas in which we particularly need to improve and we will be working on these closely during the remainder of this year and as part of our School Improvement Plan for next year.

In most areas, you will see that over 90% or above of those who responded agreed or strongly agreed with the statements. One area we feel is in need of particular attention is how to further promote anti-bullying and the understanding of what constitutes bullying. An anti-bullying policy has now been written and shared with all staff and will be on the website next term once it has been ratified by the governors; we have also had the NSPCC and CEOP in this term to work with all of the children on such issues.
The other area is on homework. We will be looking at this with the children to gather their views.

The Governors and I have also discussed every individual comment made but below is a summary of the main points.

What Works Well	What was stated as a success/How we will maintain this
• Communication	• Weekly newsletter • Early Years bulletins • Class newsletter - which we will also make more personalised each term in the future • Staff who come out with classes at the end of the day • Staff on the gate where possible • Meetings with teachers – we will also be introducing a weekly Parent Surgery – more information to follow • Responding to feedback from parents • Class pages on the website
• Use of resources	• New gates and security • Plans for new playground equipment • Continue to apply for bids
